STARKBIER FEST

In Germany a wonderful tradition happens each year to celebrate the transition from Winter to Spring. Starkbierfest! or "strong beer fest" coincides with the observation of Lent when the monk brewers had to give up eating solid foods. Instead, they drank 'liquid bread' in the form of a bigger, stronger, maltier beer. This style came to be known as Doppelbock. Here at Novare we join in the celebration by pouring various strong and dark lagers over the three week span, accompanied by a special menu of German dishes.... Prost!
